

SET COURSE FOR NEW HORIZONS

ON BOARD: LOTH LORIEN

ABOUT THE SHIP

The Loth Loriën is a modern three-masted barquentine of 48 meters in length. The wind in the sails, the sundeck and a jacuzzi on deck - these are the best prospects for an eventful and relaxing sailing trip

HISTORY

Loth Lorient was built in Norway in 1907 as a herring lugger. She was bought by her current owners in 1989 and modernised, giving her a new rigging and comfortable interiors. The latest renovation happened in 2002.
