ON BOARD: DAR MŁODZIEZY

ABOUT THE SHIP

The Dar Młodzieży is a Polish sailing training ship, designed by Zygmunt Choren and launched in 1982 in Gdansk. It is especially built to train the cadets of the Polish marine and to win a lot of Tall Ship Races. The English name of this Ship is "The Gift of Youth", appropriate since it was partly financed by the gifts of young school-children. The 110.6 metres long deck, the 62.1 metres high masts and 3.015 square metres of sails make the Dar Młodzieży a forceful competitor in the races and regatta's. Aboard this vessel you will find the atmosphere of hospitality of the Polish home.

HISTORY

The Dar Młodzieży is the first in a series of six sister ships built for the Polish and Russian navy. The Dar replaced the Dar Pomorza. The ship is willingly visited both by ordinary tourists and distinguished guests. She is the place of unique events and special ceremonies. Aboard this ship, members of the Royal families, heads of the states, famous artists, businessmen and Polish colonies will find the atmosphere of hospitality of the Polish home.
